SENIOR CLASS

The winter season got off to an uproarious start on December 1st with the presentation of the Senior play, "Aaron Slick from Punkin Crick."

Another highlight was the Winter Carnival Ball, sponsored by the Junior and Senior classes on February 21st. The feature of the evening was the coronation of the Snow King and Queen, Dominick Fontana and Amelia Palombi. The senior attendants for the royal coup e were Shirley C. Nellis and Jane Settle.

On June 14th the Junior-Senior Dinner Dance was held at Hotel Johnstown.

With red, white, and blue as the class colors and the American beauty rose as the class flower, we entered the rush which always attends the end of a happy, busy season. Baccalaureate came on June 25th; Class Night, on June 26th; Graduation, on June 27th.

Now after saying goodbye to our mascot, "It," we emerge from the winter season to enter a glorious spring in which we hope to prove our motto, "Whatever is worth doing at all is worth doing well."
